Online Registration

Registration for the school is online at:

www.midwestbibleschool.com

Everyone needs to register at our website and pay a deposit. Deposits can be refunded for cancellations before May 1st, 2024. No registration is final until a confirmation is received from Mike Livermore. If you need to make changes after registering, please contact Mike. Should the school reach capacity, preference will be given to full-time students.

What to Bring. (And What Not to Bring)

Please bring your own Bible, Hymn Book, notebooks, study tools, etc. We must provide all of our own bedding (sheets, blankets, towels and pillows). Bring your own sports equipment such as tennis, basketball, and softball gear. Ice skating activities are planned, so bring skates and safety gear if you have any. You may bring musical instruments, but please only use them for spiritual music or for part of a class or program. Please do not bring any device or technology to the school for the purpose of entertainment outside of the context of a spiritual and God-centered week.

Check-in Saturday

Check-in will begin in the University Center lobby at 2:00 p.m. and close at 9:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 13th. If you will not arrive in that time frame, please contact Mike Livermore to arrange a separate check-in time. We can't post signs, so please look for the check-in tables.

Cancellation Policy

If you cannot stay all week, please notify Mike Livermore (248.462.5740, mike.live@gmail.com). If you must cancel your registration, please inform Mike immediately. Deposits can be refunded for cancellations prior to May 1st, 2024.

Attendance Options

Given the school's capacity of 350, precedence will be given to full-time students. Initially only full-time rates will be offered. Please contact Mike to inquire about possible part-time or off-campus options.

Volunteers Needed

The Midwest Bible School needs volunteers in order to provide a spiritually uplifting week for everyone. There is a wide range of areas in which to help. If you can, please support the school by volunteering when you register online.

Memorial Service Statement

During both of the school's Memorial services, this announcement will be read:

"This Memorial service is conducted on the basis of the Birmingham Amended Statement of Faith. All who fellowship only on this basis are welcome to partake of the emblems."

Trine Campus Safety

In case of emergency, Trine Campus Safety may be reached at 260.316.1877. The University also offers a helpful online map to help you navigate:

Register Early

All indications point to a full school for 2024. If you hope to come, register early. In addition, please register only if you intend to attend. To help in school planning and provide room for those hoping to come, every spot at the school should go to someone intending to be at Trine. To that end, the deposit requirement this year is $100 per person, with a family maximum of $300. Deposits can be refunded before May 1st, 2024.
